The Gang at Tucker's IN A SERIOUS MOOD.

Speeches by The Cate Man and Delaney.

Our meetings at Tucker's are usually bright and cheerful because we are contented with our lot, but on Tuesday night a change came over the scene, and the discussion showed that more serious thoughts occupied the attention of the party.

The "Cute Man" spoke of workingmen, of the so-called unity that is supposed to exist between them, and gave it as his opinion that workingmen are united only when they are poor. Let a workingman says he, get ahead a bit in the world and we immediately become jealous of him. This fact, says the Cate Man, is as clear as daylight. We have had genuine workers aspire to seats in the House of Assembly on several occasions, and we know the result. We have had professional men who gave their time and abilities to better our condition, who received from us in return very shabby treatment indeed. Real unionism, says the Cate Man, does not in my opinion exist at all. If a man stands up to fight a genuine battle for the workingman we come to the conclusion that he has an axe to grind. We are suspicious of him, and we listen to every prate-box who belis in our ears stories about him to weaken him in our estimation. Little by little, step by step this prate-box gets in his work, and at the very moment when we should show our loyalty to our Champion, thereby strengthening his hand, and making our own position stronger, we abandon him, and cast honours upon those who never did a hand's turn to better our condition.

Tucker, Delaney and Mrs. Tucker listened to the "Cute Man's" oration attentively, and after a few moments complete silence Delaney took the floor. He congratulated the "Cute Man" and said he struck the proper note. We are ever ready, says Delaney to sneer at one of ourselves if he aspires to a seat in the Assembly. We allow the glib tongued politician to fool us every time. This country has produced in my time not more than four public men that can be truthfully styled men of the people. They all fall for the money. First rate fellows while they are preaching to us, but as soon as they get in a position where they can be of use, they seem to abandon those who made them what they are. No country, says Delaney, presents a greater chance for a man of the people than this Country of Ours. But as the "Cute Man" has said we must be loyal to that man or men when we find them. New conditions are bound to come in this country, grave problems have to be tackled, and it remains to be seen if we have the right men now in power to carry out their obligations to the people. An opportunity is now offered and if grasped by those in power will win support of the electorate. Let our new Government, says Delaney, learn a lesson in true patriotism. What is the acquiring of grandeur, and riches, compared with the esteem of one's countrymen. We have young men in the Government to whom we look for great things. Honesty and square dealing above all. Reckless expenditure of public monies is a crime, at all times, but a far greater crime at the present juncture. Economy is the watch word for some time to come. And speaking of economy let the people take the hint also, says Delaney. Money flowed like water for the past five years, and we have created a taste for squandering money that must be checked. This is no idle assertion, says Delaney, no howl of a pessimist, we will need to take stock, as it were, and see just where we stand.

Mrs. Tucker supported the views of the "Cute Man" and Delaney, and said we all need the lesson of Thrift, Economy and Honesty. Legislators and people have all a duty to perform, and now is the time to trim our sails, and put in more ballast, lest we find ourselves unprepared when the brule springs up. It may not spring up at all, we hope it won't, but no one will regret that he put in more ballast.

St. John's Woman Gained 30 Pounds in Few Weeks

Had Given Up Hope Of Ever Being Well—Tanlac Quickly Proved Merit.

The many friends of Mrs. M. Dunphy, who lives at 39 Flower Hill, St. John's, have been much surprised as well as delighted at her greatly improved health, and in a statement which she made to the Tanlac representative recently, she told just how this wonderful change in her condition had come about.

"My illness was caused first of all by the loss of my husband who was steward on the 'Florizel' when she was wrecked. Then in the following July my only son was killed in France in the big drive, and this double loss shattered my health completely. I was a total nervous wreck. For fifteen months I scarcely ever slept for more than an hour at a time, and every night had horrible nervous night-sweats. I had a continuous headache for four months, and severe pains which I was told was sciatica. My stomach refused all solid food and the only thing I lived on was fluids. Before my husband and boy were taken, I used to weigh over two hundred pounds, but I fell away until I began taking Tanlac I only weighed a hundred and twenty pounds or less. I was so weak that my friends were afraid to let me go down town alone. I had the best advice I could get and took a lot of medicine, but it did me no good. I never thought I should be well and strong again."

"I had heard of Tanlac helping a lot of people, and so when the other treatment and medicines failed I thought I would give it a trial. It was a pleasant surprise when after taking two bottles I found myself improving wonderfully. My appetite came back and for the first time in months I began to relish solid food. My nervous condition was greatly relieved and I could sleep better at night. I soon found I was putting on flesh, and now after taking seven bottles I have gained thirty pounds in weight. I am so much stronger that I can now do all my own housework without getting the least bit tired, and in fact I am a different woman in every way. I give you this statement because I am confident that there are many people who would find Tanlac of great benefit."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, and by the leading Druggist in every town.—adv.

No one will regret that he took soundings in time.

TIM SHANNAHAN.

Fashions and Fads.

Skirts of white corduroy are excellent worn with white silk of wool jumpers.

Some of the new short sleeves are edged with little fringes of feathers. A turban of patent leather is trimmed with goose feathers, glycerized. A henna-colored duvetyne coat is elaborately embroidered in gray angora wool.

Black velvet roses make the smartest of decorations on all black gowns of tulle.

A novel suit belt is made of a narrow strip of the material strung with steel rings.

Girdles of carved wooden beads are delightful and a pleasant change from the neck chains.

A frock of oak-brown velvet has embroidered bands of dull blue, brown and yellow wool.

A small hat of Alice blue straw is trimmed with clipped feathers of brick red, tan and dark blue.

Essex Motors.

You hear much these days about the car of the future.

But who describes it other than that it must be light in weight, fine in quality, enduring, reliable and of superior performance.

The ESSEX has more than one economy appeal. In gasoline, oil, tires and repair cost it is distinctly attractive. And, of course, its performance is now recognized by all motorists. Not many question ESSEX ability to out-perform other cars that it meets.

The Advent of the Man. The Goods and the Guarantee.

I AM KEARNEY—THE MAN, the projector of My Store's New Policy. The creator of the iron-bound GUARANTEE that protects every purchaser of my Quality Goods.

FIVE YEARS OF INCREASING SUCCESS IN SELLING QUALITY GOODS!

This is my record. Under my management the old firm of Smyth's earned the reputation of the "QUALITY STORE", a favorite resort for young men. It pleased me to know that I was giving Better Service, Better Value—it pleased me to hear the young men say among themselves, "If it doesn't wear well; if it doesn't bring you back in Quality as much as you paid, bring it back—KEARNEY WILL MAKE IT RIGHT." Yes, I would rather lose than have my customers dissatisfied. And the Young Men who frequent my Store are quick to recognize square dealing. My trade is not the trade of the passing-customer. My customers "stick."

BEGINNING MY GREATEST YEAR

I want to make this my First Year of ownership a year filled with great endeavor. I want my young men customers to say of me: "He will make Right; HIS WORD IS HIS BOND." I want the support of every young man who looks for Quality and Style in his Furnishings; and for this I will give Greater Value than any other man in my line—for this I have THE GOODS.

Customers of mine who come often to my Store know how complete my stock is; how critically it is kept.

PONDER OVER THIS! I bought One Year ahead! I bought so heavily, so keenly alive to the probabilities of the future that I have no need to fear that the Spring and Summer Seasons will catch me unprepared; that my customers will have to bear the brunt of any shortsightedness. It is the KEARNEY FIRST spirit again!

AND I HAVE THE WORLD'S BEST GOODS!

Famous Lines of Proven Quality; Latest Styles exploited by manufacturers that Paris Modistes are glad to copy. I have agencies for three Famous Continental Hats. Skeptics who doubt my word—what do you say to this:

BORSALINO'S from Italy, the land of Art and Song.

STETSON'S from America. Stetson Style is Broadway Style.

CHRISTY'S from England. Bond Street welcomes every New Style created by Christy artistes.

Each season the same styles that are new in Sicily, on Broadway, on Bond Street, will be shown in my Store; an item of service that enables my customers to wear the world's newest creations.

THE GUARANTEE.

Let me ask you this: Did you ever bring back to any store an article that was defective, when you believed you had reason for being dissatisfied, and had the article taken back without argument and the matter made "right"? This is the KEARNEY FIRST way. When I guarantee anything I sell; when I give you my word, it is a guarantee that will protect you till the article has given full value for the price paid. Know then that MY WORD IS MY BOND.

KEARNEY.
