The gymnasium Tuesday night at Headquaters was worth a visit. Instructors Morgan, Keats, Stone and LaFosse with their boys were as keen as mustard. Sections were taking lessons in boxing, wrestling, parrallel and horizontal bar work. The lads were appreciating the tips from their instructors who were helping any of the weak ducks "over the style." The physique of the boys is improving every week, muscles are growing stronger and the lads are feeling fitter and fitter. These instructors deserve great credit for their wonderful work.

The medical department had a two weeks' holiday last month. This section of the Brigade has done magnificent work in First Aid and in the study of oneself-the human machine. Ash Wednesday has again arrived ushering in the Holy Season of Lent in commemoration of the fast of forty days by "The Master." The Church thus gives us all a period of rest from social activities-a time to put on the brakes-and a period for reflection to check ourselves up and prepare for the glorious dawn and the sunrise of a happy Easter morning. Many of the Brigade Chaplains are eagerly embracing this Holy Season as a special time of getitng in closer and a more sympathetic touch with the lads of the old Brigade.
