GREAT ENTHUSIASM OVER COMING BOUTS.

Athletes Will Battle For Honors On Friday Night.

Sporting fans and the public in general are reminded that the big boxing and wrestling tournament for the championship of 1924, takes place on Friday evening next, in the Prince's Rink, under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Association. The various bouts promise to be keenly fought and very highly interesting. The contestants have undergone a stiff training for several weeks past, and each man will enter the ring in the pink of condition. The programme of events consists of all the various class weights, each of which will be confined to all athletes of amateur status. The meet will be held under the auspices of the A.A.A., and all bouts will be governed by the rules laid down by that body last year. All last year's men, with two or three exceptions, have signified their intentions of competing, and with the Grand Falls competitors as an added attraction, it is predicted that the coming tournament will eclipse all previous events of its kind. Judging by the number of reserved seat tickets already sold, the success of the tournament is already assured. The following officials have been appointed to conduct the bouts:—
Announcer—C. Belbin.
Welshers—F. V. Cheesman, W. H. Jackman.
Timekeepers—J. M. Tobin, C. Hall.
Clerk—J. Murphy.
Supervisors of Competitors—L. T. Stick, Dr. Alex. Bishop.
Medical Officer—Dr. John Grieve.
Referee (Boxing and Wrestling)—S. P. Cullen.
Judge of Boxing—F. W. Marshall.
R. Burns.
Judge of Wrestling—J. R. Stick, J. Campbell.
Official Seconds—S. Dewling, A. Henebury.
Supervisor of Bandages—H. Pedigrew.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

When you were in the ring, John. You didn't go and howl. You didn't go and howl. At some opponent's jaw. You didn't count them coming in. The thing you cared about was giving referees a chance. To count them going out. You'd be beneath the ban, John. To-day for you I fear. You're just a fighting man, John. And not a financier.

INTER-CLUB BILLIARDS—B. I. S. PLAYERS LEADING BY 437 POINTS.

At the Masonic Club rooms last night, two games of the Inter-Club Billiard Tournament were played, resulting in two big victories for the B.I.S. players. In both games the players of both teams found difficulty in getting the balls to run and the result was that the exhibitions were not as good as the spectators expected. By these victories the B. I. S. have now a comfortable lead of 437 points on their opponents, but as there are yet six games to be played, the final result is by no means certain, especially as the remaining players comprise some of the city's leading talent.

Last night's scores were:—
McKay, (B.I.S.)—350—17, 11, 12, 28, 13, 11, 19, 15, 21, 10, 12—181.
Greaves, (Masonic)—281—24, 12, 11, 47.
Phelan, (B. I. S.)—350—17, 15, 11, 15, 14, 25, 13, 12, 13, 10—145.

Bartlett (Masonic)—357—12, 14, 19, 13, 10—69.

There are no games scheduled for to-night, but to-morrow night the games will likely be:—Edwards (Masonic) vs. Power (B.I.S.); Sellars (Masonic) vs. W. O'Neill (B.I.S.).

PRELIMINARY BOUTS TO-MORROW NIGHT—BIG ENTRY LIST.

The preliminary bouts in connection with the big boxing and wrestling tournament, will be run-off at the Prince's Rink to-morrow night, commencing at 8 o'clock. The various competitors will weigh in sharp at 7 o'clock, and draw for bout in respective class. The preliminaries are as follows:—

BOXING.

Flyweight—J. Bishop, C. Jones, and Leo English.

Bantamweight—S. LaFosse, C. Brocklehurst, and Michael Rogers.

Lightweight—J. Hannaford (G. F.), J. Phelan and Raines (G. F.).

The following are bouts carded for night of Tournament.

WRESTLING.

Heavyweight—Ken Goodyear (G. F.) vs. F. Coeheld.

Lightweight—A. Henebury vs. B. Chancey.

Paper Weight (70lbs. Special)—Parsons vs. Brady.

BOXING.

Heavyweight—Ken Goodyear (G. F.) vs. entry from Humber.

Middleweight—J. Parsons vs. entry from Humber.

Welterweight—H. Burridge vs. G. Stamp.

Lightweight—Hannaford (G. F.), J. Phelan and Raines (G. F.).

Bantamweight—S. La Fosse, Rogers and Brocklehurst.

Flyweight—Bishop, Jones and English.

The entry list as furnished above comprises athletes of no mean ability of both the wrestling and boxing game, and excellent contests can be looked forward to in the various weights. The entry list is bigger than last year. Three, three-minute rounds will be fought in all bouts. This will tend to give more scope for snappy action. Preparations are now going on apace at the Rink, to seat the large crowds, and everything will be in readiness for the preliminaries to-morrow night. Ringside tickets for to-morrow night are on sale at 20 and 10 cents.

A number of choice seats for Friday night still remain at Grey and Goodland's, but those who intend being present at the Championships should make reservations as, with the great interest being evinced in the bouts, a record attendance is expected at the Rink on Friday night.

The Passing Hour

AN EXAMPLE.

Orville Wright, the aviator, at a dinner in Deauville, was reproached for not taking up the challenge of the Smithsonian Institute that it was Langley, not the Wrights, who was the first to fly. "The trouble with you," said one of the ladies, "is that you are too tactful. You don't assert yourself enough. You should press-agentine more."

NOT QUITE CONVINCING.

Jones was called away from his office for the greater part of the day. On his return he noticed certain symptoms of idleness on the part of his clerk. "Smithers," he asked, "why hasn't the typewriter been working?" "It has been working," replied the clerk. "I was using it less than 10 minutes ago." "Then," said Jones, pointing a convincing finger, "how comes it that there is a spider on the machine, and that it has woven a web over the keyboard?" "A fly got in the work, sir," replied the clerk, "and rather than waste time in trying to catch it, I introduced the spider."

is the most familiar question that Mother hears, after school, just before going to bed, or Saturday mornings when the kiddies have played hard with their schoolmates. When Mother says "There's some of Drake's Maple Nut Cake in the pantry," there is a scream of joy, for the boy or girl who doesn't like Drake's Maple Nut Cake is hard to find. Mother knows that it is delicious food and good to give to the children
