While working on Pierce & Son's new building on Tuesday last, Mr. Jas. Allen was seriously injured by the scaffolding giving way, and throughing him to the ground, a distance of about fourteen feet. Hoag, of Ontario, Canada, who is in the city on a visit with his son, Dr. Hoag, although never a citizen of the United States is a veteran of the civil war and a Grand Army man. He is now on his way to Carbondale, Ill., where his regiment, the 18th Illinois volunteer infantry, will hold a reunion May 28.

Mr. Hoag was in this state on a visit when the civil war broke out and he enlisted and served three years in the army of the west. During his service he was wounded and went home to Canada on a Furlough. While there he was arrested for having joined the United States army, but was released through the good offices of a few influential friends, with a small fine. From the close of the war till last fall he had no word from his former comrades, but having joined the G. A. R. on a visit in Michigan, his interest in the old days revived and he will shortly be with the shattered remnant of his regiment.
