Goo [Special to The Advertiser,] Cleveland, July 2.-Herman Schaefer's trusty sapling, wielded at a very opportune moment today, put an end tonan exciting 12-inning struggle between the Tigers and Naps. The count was 2 and 2 when the Champions' captain strode to the plate. There vere two down and Cobb was anxiby waiting at the third corner. Darkness was fast creeping on and It looked as though the contest would be called at any moment, when Schae-fer swung at the ball—there was a ek and Jennings and his team were again victorious.

Aside from the closeness of the KRAUSE WINS HIS ore and the extreme length, there was nothing out of the ordinary about game.
