ST. HELENS RUNAWAY

Virs. William Irwin and Her Son Were Thrown From Buggy.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Helens, June 29 .- On the same day and near the spot where her husband was killed only three years ago, Mrs. Wm. Irwin, of Belfast, near Helens, her son Frank, and her little daughter had a narrow escape from death. Driving along they met an auto believed to belong to a Wingham man. The horse became frightened, plunged into the ditch, upset the buggy, which was smashed into kindling wood, and then broke Strangely and fortunately in the midst of the wreckage the occupants of the buggy, while bruised and hadly frightened, escaped serious in-
