Petrolia, July 3.—Despite an allight demonstration which ended at awn this morning, the enthusiasm oday was not in the least dampened, and the county day of the old boys' celebrate. Bands began parading the streets about eight o'clock this morning, and the crowds were marching late at night.

Once again the school bell was rung promptly at 9 o'clock this morning, and all the old boys and girls returned to the school of their youth. The Central school was crowded, and the studies lasted but one hour. The old girls present were requested by their oid-time teacher, Mrs. J. A. Lancaster, to give their names, age, and address, while the men were allowed to keep their age a secret. Excuses for being late, and notes were much in prominence.

Mayor Drummond, in a short but befitting address, welcomed the Old Boys and Girls, and he told the advantages of the new school. The chairman, R. Kilpatrick, called on Sherman Swift for a few words, and the renowned old boy told of his boyhood days in the old school.

The crowd was informed about the new building by the architect, D. C. Franklin, Toronto, who outlined how the school would be constructed.

The ceremony was brought to a close by the presentation of a silver left.
