Special to The Advertiser. Milverton, Aug. 29.-John England, one of the most prominent merchants in this district, passed away here on Saturday morning, Aug. 29, after less than four days' illness from heart trouble. Mr. England was born at New Hamburg nearly 71 years ago, and grew up in Baden, where he was a schoolmate of the late Sir Adam Beck. He was a carriage-maker by trade, and was for years in business in Baden, after which he was in the employ of the late Christopher Kleepher, M.P., of Guelph. For the last seventeen years he has conducted a large and successful retail business in Milverton. His wife predeceased him by about ten years, and he is in the standing. and grew up in Baden, where he was seventeen years he has conducted a large and successful retail business in Milverton. POULTRY EXHIBIT TO BE ENLARGED

Stratford Organization Announces Open Evening For Judging Outside Flocks.

Special to The Advertiser.

Stratford, Aug. 30 .- Plans were nade at the regular meeting of the Poultry association for the revision of the prize list for the annual show, with an increase in prize money. It was also decided to hold an open evening, when poultry fanciers who are not members of the society may bring their birds and have them judged. The society will also undertake to cull any flock in the city or county if application is made for it.

Interest In Art. Special attention is being paid to the art section at the Stratford fall fair this year. A better place to display the exhibits has been arranged and the prize list revised. The addition of a graphic art section has been suggested, and with this the possibility of camera club. This has Puts J. McLauchlan Out by been successfully done in other places. Elderly Woman Hurt.
