DURRANT'S TRIAL.

Great Excitement in the Neighborhood of the Court House-Appearance of the Prisoner.

Change of Venue Moved for on the Ground of Impossibility of fair Trial.

San Francisco, July 23.—Hundreds of people surrounded the county jail yesterday morning eager to see William Henry Theodore Durrant taken to the new city hall to be tried for the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams in Emanuel church and Minnie Williams in Emanuel church 1890 abolishing the system of denominational education the Roman Catholics comappointed. At 8:45 Sheriff Whalen sent his private buggy to the county jail and Durrant and Chief Jailer Sattler started alone for the city hall. No one saw them start except the deputy jailers. The pair attracted no attention as they drove through the streets. The early hour disappointed the watchers at both ends of the journey. All the streets in the vicinity were black with people until long after the hour for opening court. The court deputies guarded both doors of the court room and admitted none but jurors, attorneys and room, all the chairs being taken. Judge Murphy peremptorily ordered that mone others be admitted.

Durrant's father was early at the court to meet his son. The two sat in quiet conversation. When Durrant was first arrested his moustache hid his mouth, and his long hair gave him the appearance of a student. Now his closely cropped hair gives him a criminal appearance, and his clean shaven lips reveal the coarse sensuality of his mouth. Three months' confinement in jail has made his naturally colorless complexion even more pallid and pasty.

When Judge Murphy said: "Case of W.
H. T. Durrant, murder," District Attorney
Barnes said, "Ready for the people." Attorney Dickinson, for the defendant, moved for a change of venue, stating that if it should appear that it would be impossible to and contrary to the terms of union. Notsecure an unbiased jury or should such a withstanding the statement in the said article, I say that a free and self-respecting G. Garner and P. J. Perkins. I shall assume that the public had been without the public had been with the great power of making laws in regard to property and civil rights. I shall assume that believed he could not have a fair trial. In support of this statement Deuprey read as part of the affidavit excerpts from the three morning and three evening papers published in San Francisco, including practically everything that has been written about the Durrant murder. The reading of the same paper, that the author of the affidavits with newspaper clippings occupied affidavits with newspaper clippings occupied the court without interruption during the
