OBITUARY.

Miss Lyde M. Cooke.
The sympathy of the entire community was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooke, in their recent affliction, the death of their third daughter, Lyde, aged twenty-five years, who passed peacefully away on Tuesday, March 5th, at her home in New Carlisle, after an illness of about five months. In August last she went to Saskatoon where three of her brothers live, to take charge of a school. After teaching a few weeks, she was obliged to give up her work suffering from sciatica; this, and the change of climate, caused heart trouble. She came home in November, and strong hopes were entertained for her recovery, until Sunday last, when unfavorable symptoms were discovered, she growing gradually weaker until the end came. Lyde was a general favorite with all. Her sweet and lovable disposition attracted the attention of all who knew her.

The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends of New Carlisle and Paspebiac, also Mrs. Steele and Ernest of Black Cape, and Mr. Scott and Mr. Beck of Cape Despair. It was her wish to have Rev. W. De Gruchy of Gaspé, where she had taught two years, assist at the funeral service, which he kindly did by conducting the prayers at the house, reading the appointed lesson and pronouncing the committal of the grave.

M. Burigan.

The death of Mr. M. Burigan of Matapedia took place at the Hotel Dieu Hospital here Wednesday, after a brief illness.

Deceased was about sixty years of age. For a number of years he was connected with the construction of the B. C. R. and in this connection made many friends throughout the Bay Chaleur territory. A brother and sister reside at Old Chasley, Que., where the body was forwarded for burial.

Mrs. Samuel Walters.

A telegram was received at Campbellton on Sunday last announcing the death of Mrs. Samuel Walters at Sawtelle, Cal.

The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Mary Archer, C. B. Gray and W. P. Gray of this town and two daughters residing in Mapleton, Maine. She was eighty-four years of age and was married twice. Her second husband and one brother survive her. They are veterans of the Civil War and three of her brothers gave their lives in the Battle of Gettysburg. She had one grandson killed in the present war and has four still serving their country and also three great great grandsons overseas. Also her father fought in the Battle of Waterloo.

She enjoyed very good health until June of last year when she had a stroke of paralysis which confined her to her bed till her death.

WOMEN SAVED THE DAY FOR THE ALLIED NATIONS

Cannot Praise Them Too Highly, Says Rev. Geo. Adam.

(Ottawa, Journal-Press.)

"Women are in the war, I believe more seriously than men themselves. The waiting, the suspense, and the worry is the woman's. The women are doing their bit in a fashion that is something beyond expression." This was one of the numerous tributes paid to women of the Allied nations by Rev. George Adam of Montreal, who addressed the Women's Club in the Collegiate Institute last night.

The speaker lauded the achievements in the war of the women of Great Britain, France and Canada. "France is the hero nation of the Allies," he said. "We expected Great Britain to do well but from France, that joke of the countries of Europe, great things were not looked for. The women of France in all their grandeur were considered jokes. Today the French women are leading the world in endurance, work and enthusiasm. With all their causes for depression they are working on the roads, day in and day out, they are in the fields, in the coal mines, the streets cleaning—they are doing everything in France, and without the women France would have failed."

Dr. Adam said that the women of Great Britain have stepped into the breach in a way the world has not fully understood. Uncomplainingly and willingly they have shared meagre food supplies with France and Italy. They are in the war not only by prayer or by enthusiasm but by work. Every week 10,000 British women, clad in khaki (are on the lines of communication in France braving the bursting shells and screaming shrapnel. Today there are five and one-half million women employed in Great Britain at every vocation imaginable.

Women Saved the World.

"If they had not come in as they had the front line trenches would have been crushed and the world today would be under German rule," said Dr. Adam. "We have to thank the women in the war for the munition surplus. As an illustration of what they have done I tell you that in one day the women produced as many shells as were made in the first year of the war. (Applause.)

"We have the guns and we have the shells—thanks to the women—now we need men and more men. The women in the last analysis will have to have credit for a greater part of the victory.

Germany Friendless Now.

If the war ended today Germany would not be victorious, said Rev. Principal Smythe. She is bankrupt in good name and good faith and has not a friend on the earth, except the Turks. Britain will come out of the war infinitely higher in esteem than she was before she entered.

"Those boys were as good if not better than I was—I did not preach to them—I did not have to," said Rev. Principal Smythe, in speaking of the Irish Rangers of Montreal, with whom he went overseas as chaplain. He said the war had shown one thing, and that was that "things we agree on are greater than those we differ on." He was speaking of the close relation of chaplains of all denominations. He lauded the British soldier and said the Cockney "had the heart of a Tiger."

SURRENDER IN AIR.

Two German Airplanes Give Up on Finding British More Numerous.

Amsterdam, Feb. 22.—How a British air squadron captured two German airplanes in full flight near Ghent, Belgium, is told in a telegram from the Dutch-Belgian frontier.

The British airmen, being in heavy numerical superiority, surrounded their opponents. The Germans saw there was no chance of escape. Rather than fight to inevitable death, the German pilots hung out white flags and meekly flew away toward the British lines, surrounded by a flock of British planes.

Jenkins was decidedly peevis at the office one morning, and his partner ventured to ask him if anything was wrong.

"My wife burst into a flood of tears last night," said Jenkins bitterly.

"Did she cause any trouble?" asked the partner sympathetically.

"I should say so," said Jenkins. "Swept away five guineas for a new hat in the first torrent!"

"So you're leaving us," said a mistress who, after great difficulty, had managed to secure a servant. "What's the trouble? Don't you like the place here?"

"I did, but I ain't going to stay here no longer. You don't treat me like one of the family!"

"Jane, how can you say that?"

"Well," said Jane, tossing her head, "you were away ten days, and you didn't even send me a picture postcard!"

H. R. HUMPHERY

Is Your Headache Caused by Imperfect Eyes

It is stated on good authority that 90% of all headaches are caused by imperfect eyes, and I have proved this true by my own experience. If this fact was generally known much unnecessary suffering could be avoided, and prevented, and more glasses would be worn.

If you are subject to this distressing affliction you should see me at once, and give me the opportunity of examining your eyes, and fitting you with glasses, that will bring you instant relief.
