He Gives Up $40 to a Confidence Man— At the General Sessions.

At the general sessions yesterday Thos. McCance was charged with stealing $30 soon Thomas O'Brien on Sept. I in a Richmond street boarding house. The evidence was not sufficient to convict, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Andrew Wilson was charged with attempting to rob Mathew Evoy on Sept. 15, on the corner of King and Bathurst streets. The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Richard Carleton was accused of obtaining $40 from Alexander Campbell, a farmer from Wingham, under false pretenses. On Aug. Il Campbell went to Union station, and while waiting for a train fell asleep. When he awoke Carleton was sifting beside him, and a general conversation ensued. Campbell took a walk and Carleton followed him, and they were together to the corner of Front and Simcoe, when a man who represented himself as a merchant, ran up and asked Carleton for a bill that he owed him. Carleton said that he hadn't any money, but he had a check. The alleged merchant refused to take the check, and asked Campbell if he could cash it. Campbell gave Carleton all the check. The street of the corner check, and asked Campbell if he could cash it. Campbell gave Carleton all the money he had ($40) and received the bogus check in return. Carleton then excused himself for a minutes, and that was the last seen of him until he was arrested by Constable Slemin two days subsequently.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

In the case of John Cooke, charged with felonious assault, the jury failed to agree, eight being for conviction and four for acwm. Scott was charged with ill-treating his 6-year old son. The evidence showed that the prisoner had kicked the child, and had actually knocked the panel of a door in with the little fellow. The jury considered him guilty of mistemeanor, with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

The grand jury returned the following true bills: Alexander Nelson, charged with assaulting with intent to rob; Wm. Scott, charged with doing grievous bodily Scott, charged with doing grievous bodily injury, and Wm. Miller and Neil McKinharged with larceny and receiving.

SILVER-PLATE MANUFACTURERS The Display at the Exhibition-The Toronto Factory to the Front.

Among the most attractive displays at the exhibition were those of the various silver-plate companies. The excellent taste shown in the designs of the goods to be seen in the elegant show-case of the Toronto Silver-Plate company (incorporated in 1881), was pleasant to behold, and bearing in mind the short period of their existence, Toronto may well be proud of having such a creditable establishment the desirability of inducing local indepen-in her midst. We notice, attached to their show-case, a card, setting forth that they are the only recipients of a gold medal, but this is clearly an error which we think they ought to remedy. Although their exhibit is certainly gorgeous and commendable and shows the greatingenuity of our cousins across the line, yet we are of opinion their designs do not compare in point of artistic merit with those of the first-mentioned company.

The Ontario silver company of Thorold, Ont., make a fine show of spoons and forks, which it would be hard to beat, and we think they fully deserve the two silver medals awarded to them.

The Latest Brewery Deal.

Several of Toronto's big breweries have within the past year made more than one change. Silent partners tempted by rumors of heavy profits were to be had for the aking. The latest change made has been in the Crosgrave Brewing company. John Cosgrave retires from the company, and will start a brewery in Montreal. John Riordan also goes out, and his place will, or has been taken by Ald. John E. Mitchell and Alex. Carmichael.

The bartender did not like the look of the bill and sent out a message boy to get it changed, when it was ascertained that the bill was the ancient Britons, are the descendants of the lost tribes of Israel, is coming to convert the Americans to the same view. The article fills over seven columns of space, covering not only the ordinary edispace, covering not only the ordinary editorial page to the utter exclusion of the usual varied and sprightly editorial matter of the leading London journal, but overflowing two columns of space on the preceding page. Its dense length, however, is broken up, if not elucidated, by eleven paragraphs, each one of which would exceed the space usually given to a creadable article. BILL NYE'S WINTER RESORT. P. O. Box 406, Hudson, Wis., DEAR SIR : Your favor of the 19th inst., with inclosure, was received, and the "baled hay" mailed herewith.

I do not generally advise young men to monkey with literature, but you seem to have been moderately successful so far, and it might be well to give it a thorough trial.

You should use great care, however, in electing the field of literature which you selecting the field of literature which you intend to perspire in.

Do not be a humorist. If you are a humorist everybody else will have more fun out of it than you will. You will make some money out of it if you get the genuine afflatus, but you won't have any fun. Humorists do not have fun. It is all a mistake. I am acquainted with one, and he says he has not smiled since he lost his twins. Once I heard of a humorist who had laughed twice in one summer, and I hunted him out. hunted him out.

He was not a humorist, but had some other trouble, the name of which has escaped my mind. Yours truly, BILL NYE.

and those who are responsible for the we fare of young ladies. First, a young lad should be taught in all the branches of the English language; she should be taught to play the plane; she should be taught house work that she may be an honored and profit able wife; she should also be taught all the accomplishments that are required to mak her a perfect lady. BUT THAT WHICH IS HER ALL AND should not be forgotten, and that is she should be taught a trade that is sure to be self-sus-taining, and as there is but one sure trade for a lady we desire to say that you as a father, mother or a guardian are responsible for every girl you raise, if she ever comes to ruin, because she is not able to earn her own living. You WILL NO DOUBT ADMIT THAT THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS CAN-

NOT BE DISPUTED.

First, we desire to say that though your wealth may be great yet the waves of adversity are many and you know not the daywhen the adversities that befal thousands every day may come on you: we warn you not to wait for the storm to come before you prepare a shelter, but prepare yourself for the worst while you have an opportunity. Not wishing to take up your valuable we will simply ask you if DRESS-MAKING is not the only sure support that can be depended on by over seventy-five percent of the ladies who in later days of their life find they must seek employment to support themselves and probably several children. You must admit that you can look to your right and left and see many a refined lady who has not long ago been the commander of her thousands, and to-day she is left without a dollar and probably a house full of dear little children who must get their bread and butter from the earnings of their mother's hands. We also desire to call your attention to the fact that while we are now selling life scholarships for a very nominal price we guarantee to teach you to cut, make, trim and drape every garment worn by lady or child to fit perfect and without the use of paper or patterns.

We also desire to call your attention to the fact
