walked on the campus. A great sigh went up when Mr. Terry sent one of McGiverin's breaks into the slips and retired.

The International inning was a marvelously weak exhibition of batting. Even Kaiser, who was the only man to get into doubles (and he barely did it), gave a chance in the slips at 3. George Lyon was evidently not himself. Saunders and Gillespie played better than any of the other batsmen for their respective eights. The secret of the inning was that Hall and McGiverin had the batsmen completely at their mercy. The London man bowled fast with breaks both ways and kept the umpire pretty busy putting on bails. McGiverin never was in better form. He vas rather unlucky, having two muffs made from his bowling, and also skied balls batted where none of the eighteen were stationed.

W. R. Wilson was unable to take his place in the team and wes substituted by J. E. Hall. At 6 o'clock with but a single wicket to fall stumps were drawn for over night. The game will be resumed this morning at 11 o'clock, and if 58 runs can be put on for the remaining wicket the Internationals will be saved the huntiliation of a followon.

Even the first eleven men of the eighteen had a big advantage, scoring 101 runs.

The match was started shortly before midday yesterday in Bloor-street. A fairly good crease had been prepared. Capt. Collins captured the flip and sent in McCarthy and Dr. Stevenson to face the bowling of the Capital Capi

Dickey and Goldingham. Runs came slowly but surely. The Aurora doctor put up one for J. E. Hall and retired at 10. When Leigh and Bowbanks got together a change of bowling was necessary before they were separated.

W. J. Fleury played the inning of the day. His 32 was made without a chance. Cameron and Davenport the remaining double figure scorers, pocketed 31 between them, but a chance or two intervened.

It was about 4 o'clock when the Eleven began its venture. The London parson and the International Cap, were applauded as they walked on the campus. A great sigh went
