REV. F. G. BURRELL'S VIEW to Men's Brotherhood

Characterizing present-day marriage as one of the abnormal conditions in Canada, Rev. F. G. Burrell, of Leamington, in an address on "Canada's Present Situation." to 400 men attending the joint meeting of all London Men's Brotherhoods in Maitland Street Ba t'st C prob is it ever ng. nic tha the young girls of to-day were virtually "falling" for "dudes." while men of the big, strapping, b'ue-blooded type were passed by because they "probably de not part their hair in the center, wear spats, bow ties, snappy socks or tight kneed trousers." The speaker said that this deplorable method of "picking a marriage partner" worked both ways, as the young men also pass up a good Christian girl and call her an old

"But she's the best girl made." h added. "And the couples getting mar ried to-day don't want children. Why don't they? Well, because it costs too much." The speaker gave some figures in this regard, informing the gathering that an even $211 would pay the expenses of a baby for the first four weeks after birth. "And it's worth it." he said.

CRIME WAVE CAUSE. A great deal of the present crime could also be blamed on the marriage conditions throughout the country during the past 30 years, he said charging that the couples who have been married since that time have been paying too much attention to pleasure and money making, neglecting thei nomes, churches and schools. This has resulted in their children being neglected, growing up in an atmosphere that has been none too wholesome The speaker also blamed the clergy who, he said, have been preaching everything but the gospel. "Bolsheveverything but the gospel.
