THE PRODUCTION OF HOGS.

To produce pork profitably hogs must feed and graze continuously on pastures and crops particularly planted for them, is the advice of experts of the farmers' co-operative branch of the bureau of plant industry, department of agriculture. Very seldom is the growing of hogs for slaughter a source of profit unless proper grazing and feeding methods are followed.

In the spring, summer and fall there are many crops for pasturing hogs, but during the winter the crops to select from are limited. On almost every farm the production and keeping of hogs in winter is expensive and generally it is not profitable, for the reason that large quantities of corn are fed without products of green crops. More winter grazing is needed, for which many crops are adapted. The most reliable are, however, rape, rye, oats, wheat and barley.

For grazing purposes these pasturing crops for hogs should be sown on specially well drained and prepared land that is either rich or has received a liberal application of manure. Good winter pasturage is not obtained except on the best drained lands.

The seeding should be heavy to insure a thorough planting. The young plants will grow slowly in the winter and many plants will be needed to furnish plenty of pasture. Crimson clover will do well with rape, rye, oats, wheat and barley and will mean an improvement on the land.

No Asthma Remedy Like It. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is distinctly different from other so-called remedies. Were this not so it would not have continued its great work of relief until known from ocean to ocean for its wonderful value. Kellogg's, the foremost and best of all asthma remedies, stands upon a reputation founded in the hearts of thousands who have known its benefit.

A DURABLE STACK COVER.

Will Be Found Convenient to Use For Many Purposes.

A very durable stack cover can be made of boards in sections about four feet wide by six feet long. Place four boards one inch by four feet by six inches side by side and fasten together with braces. Paint joints on upper side and paint bats before covering the joints. Do not run bats way to the top, but run one bat along the top, extending over about two inches on half of them and put no bats on the other half, so that the bat will cover them both. Put bats on right side of each section so that it will cover the edge of next section. Place barn hasps on the bats so that they will fit staples on the companion section. Care should be taken to get these hasps and staples rightly located. These covers will be found to be very convenient to use as stack covers and for machinery, chicken coops, pig shade, cattle shade, etc. Being light and movable, they can be put to a great number of uses and, being rigid, are not easily blown away, nor will they sag—lowa Homestead.

Winter Care of Peach Trees. Peach trees are especially subject to the attacks of the San Jose scale. The bark of infested trees is covered with a crust of grayish scales, the insects multiplying rapidly and finally killing the tree. The remedy is spraying with lime-sulphur during the winter. When trees are badly infested it may be necessary to prune them back severely before applying the spray. Take care to burn all the wood cut from the trees.

Electricity For Chickens.

Before the London Royal Society of Arts, Thorne Baker, the electrician, advocated the application of electricity to chicken farming. Experiments, he said, had proved that chickens could be grown under electric stimulus at about double the normal rate and with a mortality practically nonexistent. An induction coil giving a one inch spark could successfully treat 1,000 chickens.

The Poor Man's Friend—Put up in small bottles that are easily portable and sold for a very small sum, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil possesses more power in concentrated form than one hundred times the quantity of many unguents. Its cheapness and the varied uses to which it can be put make it the poor man's friend. No dealer's stock is complete without it.
