

ANNALS
OF
ST ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.—THE DIRECTORS OF LEVIS COLLEGE.

CONTENTS.

Spirituel advantages. — A mother cured by St. Anne. — The Worship and patronage of St. Anne : Homage paid to her by the western world, France (Continued.) — An act of gratitude to St. Anne. — The feast of St. Anne at Apt, in Provinces. — Lez-Breiz : epic fragments (Continued.) — Paris to Lourdes. (Concluded.) — A prayer to Our Lady of Perpetuel Help (poetry). — A littel girl cured by St. Anne.

Price of subscription : 35 cents ; all correspondence to be directed to Rev. C. E. CARRIER, Levis College, Levis, V. Q.

SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES.

1^o Two masses are offered up every week, one on Monday, and the second, on Saturday, for subscribers and their families ; 2^o another mass is said, on the first Friday of every month, for deceased subscribers.

—000—

A MOTHER CURED BY ST. ANNE.

About the end of last June, I fell seriously ill. A continual prey to violent sufferings, unable to take any food, and subject to frequent fits of vomiting, I became extremely weak, and my illness, of which the symptoms were quite out of the common, increased in gravity every day. The priest was summoned to administer to me the Sacraments of the dying. He advised me to