

"Andy" Devine and Leo O'Meara, when up with their team at the recent Varsity-Queens game, renewed old acquaintances.

Obituary.

Universal sorrow has been caused by the death of the Rev. Theophilus Laboureau. The missionary's great work was the raising of the Memorial Church in Penetanguishene to the martyrs, Jean de Breboeuf and Gabriel Lalement. Like theirs his life has exemplified the union of whole-hearted zeal and virtue.

Thos. E. Kenny, son of the late Sir Edward Kenny, died recently at Halifax. Rev. Geo. Kenny, S.J., is a surviving brother.

Rev. Father J. E. Crinnon, F.P., of Paris, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, Saturday, November 7.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Byrnes and family, of King Edward avenue, on the loss of their daughter Isabella.

Mr. Edward Devlin, of Daly avenue, who died on the 7th inst., has always been known for his strong convictions and works of charity. He was one of the University Athletic Club's warmest supporters. R.I.P.

Personals

Monsignor Sbarette, Apostolic Delegate to Canada, accompanied by his acting secretary, Rev. Dr. McNally, will return from Italy before Christmas.

The Right Rev. E. A. Latulipe was consecrated Bishop of Femiscaming on the 30th ult. The ceremony took place at Pembroke, where the reverend gentleman had been parish priest for about eleven years before going north two years ago. Both the clergy and the laity took advantage of the occasion to show their esteem for their former pastor. Father Latulipe, O.M.L., director of the Commercial College, is the new bishop's nephew.

The Rector is expected home for Christmas.

Hon. C. R. Devlin left on the second week of November for Kindly Patronize Our Advertisers.