Prices—Paper Covers, 25 Cts. ; Cloth Bound, 50 Cts. Post Free.

As a beautiful story, filled with an exquisite pathos and sweetness, "Sara Crewe" will take rank with the Author's "Little Lord Fauntleroy." As the latter story had a boy for its hero, so this has a girl for its heroine—a weird, queer little creature, whose elish cleverness and odd ways are made of striking interest by the exquisite art with which the Author has woven them into the texture of the story. The trustfulness and generous kindness of the little waif are very winning, and her natural warmth and tenderness of heart will make every reader her friend. Mr. Birch's illustrations admirably reflect the spirit of author and story.

"Editha's Burglar" may be considered one of Mrs. Burnett's most charming stories. Although not previously issued in book form, it has met with the warmest approval from the public. Mr. Birch's illustrations, done specially for this issue in book form, will add to the charm of the work.

A BUNDLE OF LETTERS TO BUSY GIRLS ON PRACTICAL MATTERS

Written to those girls who have not time or inclination to think and study about the many important things which make up life and living.

By GRACE H. DODGE.

12mo, Cloth. Price 60 Cents.

This is a book of practical sense that should be in the hands of every girl. As is well known, Miss Dodge is a member of the New York Board of Education, and no one knows better than she does just what girls need to know and how to tell it to them.

"Josiah Allen's Wife" says of this book: "It is one of the best and most helpful books for girls I ever read. It is written with charming directness and simplicity."

The N. Y. Herald says: "The letters are written in the frank, familiar style which makes all Miss Dodge's talks so delightful. There is no conventionality, no formality about them, but every word is as though spoken from heart to heart."

The Congregationalist says: "They are plain spoken, sensible, earnestly Christian, and in every way thoroughly valuable."
