

Nervousness

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE.

Prepared according to the directions of Prof. E. N. HORSFORD.

Many diseases, especially disorders of the nervous system, are attributed to a diminution of the phosphates, which are found in every fibre of the body. Horsford's Acid Phosphate supplies the phosphates, and relieves nervous exhaustion.

Dr. THEO. F. BRECK, Springfield, Mass., says :

"Very superior in diseases pertaining to the nervous system."

Dr. B. B. GROVER, Rushford, N. Y., says :

"Have prescribed it for nervous irritability, with marked results."

Dr. A. S. MAY, Forest, O., says :

"Very satisfactory in controlling nervousness in females."

AN ADDRESS BY HENRY DRUMMOND, F.R.S.,

Author of "Natural Law in the Spiritual World."

Parchment Cover, Very Attractive. - - Price 35 Cents.

"Professor Drummond's address has had great vogue, and is worthy of it. Translations have appeared in divers languages, and this edition is corrected from the original shorthand writer's report. The address is based on 1 Cor. xiii.: 'Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels,' etc. The greatest thing in the world is love, says Professor Drummond, not faith. But we might ask, How can a person have one without the other, i.e., faith in its widest sense? Professor Drummond's style is vivacious, readable and clear; and the little book, neatly bound in white stiff paper covers, with golden lettering and monogram and gilt top edges, makes a very pretty present."—Literary World.
