

NEW RULES.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE, ONTARIO.

DIVISIONAL COURTS.

The following rules were made by the Supreme Court of Judicature on the 9th January.

Rule 1429 is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

"218 (1) Unless otherwise ordered, sittings of the Divisional Courts shall commence on the first Monday in each month, and shall continue for two weeks, unless the business before the Court shall be sooner disposed of, subject to the following exceptions:

"(2) The Divisional Courts will not sit on any day falling in any vacation, nor upon any Saturday or public holiday.

"(3) Where the first Monday in a month shall fall in any vacation the Divisional Court will not commence its sittings until the first Monday after the expiration of such vacation; and where the first Monday in a month shall be a public holiday the Divisional Court will commence its sittings on the first juridical day thereafter, not being in vacation."

Rule 1484 is hereby repealed, and the following substituted:—

"799 A. (1) Every motion to a Divisional Court against a judgment or for a new trial, or to set aside a verdict, or by way of appeal from a judgment or order of a Judge of the High Court, made at a trial or otherwise in respect of the judgment pronounced at a trial, shall be set down to be heard for, at the latest, the first sittings of a Divisional Court which commence after the expiration of one month from the date of the verdict or the pronouncing of the judgment (if any), unless otherwise ordered.

"(2) Every such motion shall be upon a seven clear days' notice, and the motion shall be set down two clear days before the commencement of the sittings of the Divisional Court for which notice is given, unless otherwise ordered.

"799 B. (1) Every motion to a Divisional Court by way of appeal from any judgment or order made by a Judge of the High Court sitting in Court, otherwise than at a trial, or by way of appeal from any judgment or order made by a judge of the High Court sitting in Chambers, which is appealable to a Divisional Court, shall be set down to be heard for the first sittings of a Divisional Court, for which due notice can be served after the expiration of four days from the pronouncing of the judgment or order complained of, unless otherwise ordered.

"(2) Every such motion shall be upon a two clear days' notice, and the motion shall be set down two clear days before the commencement of the sittings of the Divisional Court for which the notice is given, unless otherwise ordered.

"799 C. Every notice of motion or appeal to a Divisional Court shall set out the grounds of the motion or appeal."
