LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Jan. 1, 1880, THE LIVING AGE enters upon its 188th Volume.

Approved in the outset by Judge Story, Chancellor Kent, President Adams, historians Sparks, Prescott, Ticknor, Bancroft, and many others, it has met with constant commendation and success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives more than three and a quarter thousand double-column octavo pages of reading matter yearly; and presents with a combined freshness and completeness nowhere else attempted.

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader, as the only satisfactory, fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature,—it is dispensible because it embraces the productions of the ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of literature, Science, Politics, and Art.

OPINIONS:

"No man who understands the worth and value of this sterling publication would think of doing without it. Nowhere else can be found such a comprehensive and perfect view of the best literature as thought of our times."—Christian at Work, New York

"It is one of those few publications, weekly or monthly, which seem indispensable. There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it. It contains nearly all the good literature of the time."—The Churchman, N. Y.

"Replete with all the treasures of the best current thought, the best fiction, and the best poetry of the day. It stands unrivalled."—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

"It maintains its leading position in spite of the multitude of aspirants for public favor."—New York Observer.

"Biography, fiction, science, criticism, history, poetry, travels, whatever men are interested in, are found here."—The Watchman, Boston.

"By the careful and judicious work put into the editing of THE LIVING AGE, it is made possible for the busy man to know something of what is going on with ever-increasing activity in the world of letters. Without such help he is lost."—Episcopal Record, Philadelphia.

"In it we find the best productions of the best writers upon all subjects ready to our hand."—Penn. Inquirer.

"The readers miss very little that is important in the periodical domain."—Boston Journal.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—N. Y. Tribune.

"It is edited with great skill and care, and its weekly appearance gives it certain advantages over its monthly rivals."—Albany Argus.

"It furnishes a complete compilation of an indispensable literature."—Chicago Evening Journal.

"For the amount of reading matter contained, its subscription is extremely low."—Christian Advocate, Nashville.

"In this weekly magazine the reader finds all that is worth knowing in the realm of current literature."—Canada Presbyterian, Toronto.

"It is indispensable to all who would keep abreast of our manifold progress. It is absolutely without rival."—Montreal Gazette.
