

own. Now independent loggers have all kinds on hand, but no market. They state they could dispose of them in the States, but the law forbids, and the petition asks for the order-in-council to be raised if only to allow them to dispose of the great surplus. When the law was made the conditions were much the same as in Ontario at the time a similar act was enforced. The result in both instances was the erection of many mills in Canadian territory by Americans. The unusual prosperity of last year had a bad effect and there is no prospect of immediate alleviation, as the Dominion government has decreed that the Northwest market is not for Canadians but for the Americans who debar people from this side of the line from participating in any trade in their country, except under the most difficult conditions.

FIRE

The lumber yard of E. B. Foss & Co., Company at Point St. Charles, Que., was visited by fire recently, when 100,000 feet of lumber were burned.

The sash, door and box factory of the Portage Lumber Company, at Portage, Ont., was totally destroyed June 17. The loss is upwards of $100,000. A saw mill at Huntsville, Ont., owned and operated by John Whitehead, was burned on the 18th June. The loss was about $12,000. The lumber yard was saved.
