Editors Table.

A pamphlet on Strawberry Culture, by W. W. Hilborn, horticulturalist of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, has reached the Table. We know personally something of Mr. Hilborn's long practical study of small fruits in general, and strawberries in particular, and can recommend his work to those interested in the cultivation of the luscious berry.

A. W. Morris & Bro., proprietors of the extensive factories at Montreal for the manufacture of binder twine, cordage, bags, etc., have undertaken the publication of a fortnightly journal, devoted to the interest of the hemp yarn trade. The new publication will be known as Hemp Yarn, and will be distributed gratis to the trade. The first number of the journal, which has reached the Table, is a model of neatness, and quite interesting in its reading matter.

The Dominion Illustrated for September 28 is an excellent number. It contains four effective views of scenes connected with the recent terrible disaster at Quebec, which has sent a thrill of horror through the country. The engravings are realistic, and convey an idea of the terrible nature of the catastrophe. Several pages are devoted to the illustration of the Halifax carnival, of which some capital views are given. Altogether, this week's issue is of more than ordinary interest.—Dominion Illustrated Publishing Company, Montreal.

A thrice welcome visitor reached the Table this week, which was at once recognized before the wrapper had been removed, as The Bystander. The Canadian public, who have been deprived for some time of the opportunity to peruse regularly articles from the pen of Professor Goldwin Smith, will welcome the resurrection of The Bystander. New series No. 1 of The Bystander is similar in appearance to the former issues of the publication under the same name, and the power which guides the pen is at once recognized as also the same which controlled the pages of the old series. The Bystander will at once come into prominence all over Canada, and will be regularly looked for by many who may not agree in every particular with the opinions put forth in its pages. The articles in The Bystander will be refreshing in the sense that they will certainly be free from party bias. The first number gives prominence to Manitoba questions, upon which the writer is quite competent to dwell. Mr. Smith has for years taken a deep interest in western affairs and he has made it a point to visit this part of Canada at least once a year. Published monthly by Hunter, Rose & Co., Toronto. Subscription rate $1 per year.
