After the Fire

is too late to insure the burned building. Even those most anxious for business will not insure your house if it smells of smoke; and no company insures the lives of sick men. All intelligent people realize the advantages of life insurance, and those who are insured fully appreciate its benefits. You, no doubt, intend to take out a policy some day; but now may be your only opportunity; the future may find you uninsurable. Would it not be wise, therefore, to communicate with the

North American Life

at once, while you are yet in good health? It is a company with a splendid record and of unexcelled financial strength.
