

Paragraphic.

Miss Whately has returned to her schools at Alexandria.

The new see of Hay, in the "Rivonia," carved out of the diocese of Bathurst and Goulburn, has already secured the necessary endowment of £14,000.

The Rev. E. Husband, incumbent of St. Michael's, Folkestone, has received an anonymous gift of £1,000 towards the completion of his church by the addition of a new aisle.

The Standard says it is informed that it is in contemplation to obtain the advowson of one of the Oxford parochial churches, in order that the Pusey Memorial may be established in the parish—a step which is at once reasonable and wise.

Mr. Drake, of Breakspears, Uxbridge, has conveyed to the see of Rochester, the advowson of the important church of St. Paul's, Deptford, and also that of the new parish of St. Peter's, Brockley, formed some years since out of St. Paul's.

The Bishop of St. Albans has recently undergone an operation for cataract. Mr. Critchett, son of the late eminent oculist, performed the operation successfully, and the Bishop is progressing favourably. His Lordship's duties are being undertaken by the Bishop of Colchester, suffragan of the diocese.

At Melbourne the Bishop has completed his lecture before the "Philosophical Society" on the Book of Job. He is making good progress with his scheme for a new cathedral. The estimated cost of the building is £120,000, of this £70,000 has been already paid or promised.

The gathering at Oxford on behalf of the Pusey Memorial was a remarkable one, remarkable for its unanimity and the excellence of the form determined upon—to purchase Dr. Pusey's library; to place it in an appropriate building, with two or more Curators to the same.

The Rev. J. C. Salfex and the Rev. J. Woodward have sailed for Zanzibar to reinforce the sadly diminished staff of the Central African Mission. Mr. Salfex is by birth a Galla, who was rescued by Commander Hastings, R. N., from a slave show when he was quite young, and he has been educated at St. Mark's, Windsor, and the Missionary College, Dorchester.

The Irish Ecclesiastical Gazette says: Foremost amongst the American Church press we may rank The Living Church, of Chicago, The Churchman, of New York, The Church Guardian, of Halifax, The Guardian, of Baltimore, and the Episcopal Register, of Baltimore.

We learn with much satisfaction that a princely gift has been made to the Bishop of Liverpool for the benefit of his diocese. Mr. Charles Groves, of Liverpool, has intimated to the Bishop that he is prepared to place the sum of £10,000 at his disposal for building new churches. We understand that the only conditions Mr. Groves annexes to his gift are that any church or churches built shall be placed under the patronage of the Simeon Trustees, or of the Church Patronage Trust, and that the present Bishop shall have the first appointment. Mr. Groves has stated his intention to adhere rigidly to these conditions.—Record.
