NEWS A'ND NOTES,

MISS CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG, the singer, does not believe in send ing American girls abroad for a musical education. She gives her reasons in an article which will appear in the Youth's Companion.

Talmage said in his lecture, the other night, that "the mau who can sing, and won't sing, should be sent to Sing Sing." That would be too severe. It is the too severe. It is the man who can't sing, and will sing, who should he sent to Sing Sing. P.S .- For 99 years.

"Reasons for Being a Churchman

By the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little Rector St. Paul's, Portland, Me,

Neatly bound in Cloth, 282 pages, Price $1.10 by mail.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the (harch that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books up a this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We can mend it most hear the to every Clergymon for personal help and parochial use. We would if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it wil, be read with interest, from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.— Church who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.— Church Record.
