

THE PARLIAMENT OF RELIGIONS.

We take great pleasure in announcing to our readers the early publication of a work interesting and valuable to all, "The Parliament of Religions" at the Columbian Exposition. Will be issued complete in one large octavo volume, and will be a careful compilation of all of the proceedings—at once a fascinating story and a book of universal value. The book contains origin of the Parliament of Religions; proceedings of every meeting of the Parliament; speeches delivered and papers read at every session of the noted gathering; the beliefs of the various religious denominations; opinions of eminent divines in regard to the Parliament; influence of the Parliament upon the religious thought of the world. Published by F. T. Neely, Chicago. Price: Cloth, $2.50; sheep, $4.00

—MRS. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT has been induced to revive "Little Lord Fauntleroy" in a series of articles just completed for The Ladies Home Journal, in which she tells "How Fauntleroy Really Occurred," and traces the conception of the story, the development of the character as he lived under her own eyes, and describes Fauntleroy as he is to-day—her own son.

The large demand for this "Story" has necessitated the issue of a NEW EDITION. The book has been revised, and the statistics made up to the moment of going to press. In order to make its pages yet more attractive, some excellent views of Cathedrals and Churches have been added, and those who have not yet done so may be glad to distribute it as an antidote to the anti-Church literature which is now being so largely circulated. In all parts of the Kingdom, in view of the coming attack upon our Church. Nearly all the Bishops have signified their warm approval of the "Story." The late Archbishop Magee commended it in these words: "It gives in a condensed and popular form one of the best statements of the past history and present work of the Church with which I am acquainted. It seems to me especially suited for distribution amongst our intelligent working classes, who need just such a corrective to the false and misleading statements now so industriously circulated amongst them by the enemies of our Church."
