Mercantile Summary.

A GUELPH firm has received a car-load of Quebec onions.

A COMPANY with $50,000 capital is being organized in Montreal to make pressed brick and tiles.

THE creditors of R. J. Smith, harness maker, Napanee, have offered his stock for sale. In the same place J. F. Whelan's stock of groceries has been disposed of by the sheriff.—W. H. Crow, grocer, Chatham, whose difficulties we have already noticed, has since made an assignment.

S. A. FINDLAY, general storekeeper, Ancaster, has sold his business to Thomas Postans.—Cole & Burk have bought the grocery stock of J. J. & J. Cochrane, at Colborne.—In this city, Jos. Ruse has sold his piano and organ business to J. S. Powley, of Belleville.—Staebler & Morlock, general storekeepers, Tavistock, are about dissolving partnership.

SOME weeks ago we noted that Thomas Gillies, liquor dealer, had come from the country to this city hoping to better his chances for making money. Now we learn that he is asking creditors to accept 15 per cent. of their claims in settlement of accounts. This, it is the opinion, they should refuse, though they may be compelled to accept even less in the event of the business being wound up.

IN 1880 Jos. Broadbent, builder, London, failed. Obtaining his discharge in the following year he has since found it difficult to make "ends meet" and has again assigned.—In the same city J. E. Platt, druggist, also failed a few years ago. Now the bailiff is in possession at the instance of his landlord.—Smith & Adams, grocers, Oshawa, have been doing business on but little capital and have at length assigned.
