TO READERS OF THE FRENCH LANGUAGE.

LA REVUE FRANÇAISE is a handsome monthly magazine of belles lettres, science, and art. It is chiefly eclectic, reprinting the choicest selections from modern French literature—from the great Parisian Reviews, and from the works of the leading litterateurs of modern France. It contains original articles also, studies of French literature and its authors, discussions on the study and teaching of French and other modern languages, a Revue Parisienne, a Revue Bibliographique, Chroniques, and a Boîte aux Lettres for the accommodation of all.

The fiction and plays printed are of the purest as well as the best, and the whole character of the magazine is of the highest—such as makes it perfect reading for all. It is adapted for reading in circles, classes, schools and seminaries, as well as in private. In appearance it is one of the handsomest magazines published.

Subscription $4.00 a year.

Single numbers 35 cents.

How a man with no surplus of estate, but still enough money to pay the premium on a life insurance policy can refuse to do it, and then look his children in the face and say his prayers at night on going to bed, expecting them to be answered, is a mystery to me that I have never yet been able to fathom.—TALMAGE.
