

interim reports as it may deem appropriate to the Secretary-General for transmission to the Members of the Organization; in any reports to the General Assembly the Special Committee may make such recommendations to the General Assembly as it deems fit;

(4) Shall determine its own procedure, and may establish such sub-committees as it deems necessary;

(5) Shall commence its work within thirty days after the final decision of the General Assembly on this resolution, and shall remain in existence pending a new decision of the General Assembly.

10. The General Assembly

Requests the Secretary-General to assign to the Special Committee staff adequate to enable it to perform its duties, and to enter into a standing arrangement with each of the four Governments concerned to assure the Special Committee, so far as it may find it necessary to exercise its functions within their territories, of full freedom of movement and all necessary facilities for the performance of its functions.

E. United States Amendment to Draft Resolution of Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, October 29, 1947

THE PROBLEM OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF KOREA

Inasmuch as the Korean question which is before the General Assembly is primarily a matter for the Korean people itself and concerns its freedom and independence, and recognizing that this question cannot be correctly and fairly resolved without the participation of representatives of the indigenous population.

The First Committee recommends that: elected representatives of the Korean people from northern and southern Korea be invited to take part in the consideration of the question.

Further recommends that in order to facilitate and expedite such participation and to insure that the Korean representatives will in fact be duly elected by the Korean people and not mere appointees from military authorities in Korea, there be forthwith established a United Nations Temporary Commission on Korea, to be present in Korea with right to travel, observe and consult throughout Korea.
