

At CHR 46, Canada will support the inclusion on the agenda of an item relating to the status of the Convention. The continued consideration of this topic by the CHR and other U.N. fora is critical to ensuring the early entry into force of the Convention. It will also permit the CHR to consider in future the activities of the Committee on the Rights of the Child, which will be established on the entry into force of the Convention.