

D. Decision-making process

1. Each member of the Executive Council has one vote.
2. The decision-making process of the Executive Council could be based on: simple majority for matters of procedure; consensus for matters of substance; and after ... hours a majority of (...).
3. Voting requirements other than a two-thirds majority could be developed in order to prevent any preponderance. */

*/ A view was expressed that, in order to prevent preponderance, the decision-making process should be such that no one regional group could impose a decision on others and, in turn, could not be imposed upon with a decision it does not agree with.
