

(2) Items other than those covered by paragraph (1) of this Article shall be subject to this Agreement when the Parties have so agreed in writing.

(3) The appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties shall establish notification and other administrative procedures in order to implement the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE V

The written consent of a Party shall be obtained prior to the transfer of any nuclear material, non-nuclear material, equipment or technology subject to this Agreement beyond the jurisdiction of the other Party to this Agreement to a third party.

ARTICLE VI

Nuclear material subject to the Agreement shall not be enriched to twenty (20) percent or more in the isotope U 235 or reprocessed without the prior written consent of both Parties. Such consent shall include the conditions under which the resultant plutonium or uranium enriched to twenty (20) percent or more may be stored and used. An arrangement to facilitate the implementation of this provision may be established by the Parties.

ARTICLE VII

(1) Nuclear material, non-nuclear material, equipment and technology subject to this Agreement shall not be used to manufacture or otherwise acquire nuclear weapons or other nuclear explosive devices or for any military purpose.

(2) With reference to nuclear material, the fulfillment of the commitment made in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be verified pursuant to a safeguards agreement between each Party and the International Atomic Energy Agency. In Canada this requirement is satisfied by the agreement of February 21, 1972 between Canada and the International Atomic Energy Agency for the application of safeguards in connection with the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons. In the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics this requirement is satisfied where nuclear material subject to this Agreement is subject to the agreement of February 21, 1985 between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the International Atomic Energy Agency for the application of safeguards in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. If for any reason or at any time, nuclear material subject to this Agreement is not or will not be subject to mutually acceptable
