

Article 2

1. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party the rights specified in the Agreement to enable its designated airline to establish and operate international air services on the routes specified in the Annex thereto hereinafter referred to as "the specified routes".
2. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party except as otherwise specified in the Annex the following rights for the conduct of international air services by the airline designated by the other Contracting Party:
 - (a) to fly without landing across the territory of the other Contracting Party;
 - (b) to make stops in the said territory for non-traffic purposes;and
 - (c) to make stops in the said territory for the purpose of taking up and discharging, while operating the specified routes, international traffic in passengers, cargo and mail, separately or in combination.
3. The airlines of each Contracting Party, other than those designated under Article 3 of this Agreement, shall also enjoy the rights specified in sub-paragraphs 2(a) and (b) of this Article.
