

6. In the case of other claims against the United States arising from activities at the NRC facilities the United States may also offer to settle these in accordance with applicable provisions of United States law. If any such offers are acceptable, the United States may so settle them.

ARTICLE XII

Information

The public release of information relating to operations under this Agreement will be the responsibility of the Agency concerned with the sponsorship of each project.