

Questions

A definite decision for the extension of the benefits of E.G.M.A. beyond the expiry date of December 31, 1967 will not be required during the present year.

2. The restriction of assistance to gold mines giving direct support to already existing gold mining communities was intended to prevent the establishment of new communities, supported by gold mining operations, which would be dependent on government assistance from the outset. Consequently, it is not intended to remove this restriction.

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL REVENUE—
EXTRA SUMMER STAFFQuestion No. 854—Mr. Caron:

1. How many extra employees were hired for summer positions by the Department of National Revenue (a) in Ottawa (b) in the taxation division (c) in the customs and excise division, during the summer of 1965?

2. Who recommended these employees?

3. Do they have relatives—father, mother, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts—who work for the department?

Hon. E. J. Benson (Minister of National Revenue): 1. (a) In Ottawa, Customs and Excise, none; Taxation, none; (b) Taxation Division did not hire any employees for summer positions in Ottawa or outside Ottawa; (c) Customs and Excise Division employed 248 during the summer of 1965 outside Ottawa.

2. Appointments were made from Civil Service Commission eligible lists.

3. Information not available.

ROYAL CANADIAN MINT—EXTRA
SUMMER STAFFQuestion No. 856—Mr. Caron:

1. How many extra employees were hired for summer positions by the Royal Canadian Mint (a) at the head office (b) in the other Ottawa offices, during the summer of 1965?

2. Who recommended these employees?

3. Do they have relatives—father, mother, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts—who work for the Royal Canadian Mint?

Hon. Mitchell Sharp (Minister of Finance): 1. The Royal Canadian Mint hires extra casual employees at anytime of the year when the work load so requires, but does not hire extra employees for summer positions as such.

2. Not applicable.

3. Not applicable.

[Mr. Pepin.]

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE—EXTRA
SUMMER STAFFQuestion No. 857—Mr. Caron:

1. How many extra employees were hired for summer positions by the Department of Finance (a) at the head office (b) in other Ottawa offices, during the summer of 1965?

2. Who recommended these employees?

3. Do they have relatives—father, mother, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts—who work for the department?

Hon. Mitchell Sharp (Minister of Finance):

1. (a) Nine at the head office of the Department of Finance and one at the head office of the Comptroller of the Treasury. (b) None.

2. The Civil Service Commission.

3. Not to the knowledge of the department.

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE—
EXTRA SUMMER STAFFQuestion No. 863—Mr. Caron:

1. How many extra employees were hired for summer positions by the Department of Trade and Commerce (a) at the head office (b) in the other Ottawa offices, during the summer of 1965?

2. Who recommended these employees?

3. Do they have relatives—father, mother, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts—who work for the department?

[Translation]

Hon. Robert Winters (Minister of Trade and Commerce): 1. (a) 5; (b) Nil.

2. Civil Service Commission.

3. No.

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL HEALTH AND WELFARE—EXTRA SUMMER STAFFQuestion No. 864—Mr. Caron:

1. How many extra employees were hired for summer positions by the Department of National Health and Welfare (a) at the head office (b) in the other Ottawa offices, during the summer of 1965?

2. Who recommended these employees?

3. Do they have relatives—father, mother, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts—who work for the department?

[Translation]

Hon. A. J. MacEachen (Minister of National Health and Welfare): 1. (a) 16; (b) 45.

2. Hired through the Civil Service Commission and the National Employment Office.

3. No records are maintained to show where the relatives of an employee are employed.