

Routine Proceedings

- (1) House of Commons proceedings live;
- (2) Replay of Statements under Standing Order 31 and of Question Period;
- (3) Proceedings of the special joint committee live where that is technically feasible;
- (4) Replay of proceedings of the special joint committee;
- (5) Replay of House proceedings or portion thereof beginning with Question Period;
- (6) Weekend replay of the previous week's proceedings of the special joint committee.

Madam Deputy Speaker: Does the hon. parliamentary secretary have the unanimous consent of the House to move the motion?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

Mr. Peter Milliken (Kingston and the Islands): Madam Speaker, I rise on a point of order. I think the parliamentary secretary in his point about replay of the proceedings meant to replay those parts that had not been played live. Is that correct? I wonder if he could confirm that.

My understanding is that the House will be played live. Question Period and Statements under Standing Order 31 will be replayed. Then any live proceedings of the committee then taking place will be played. Then any committee proceedings taped during the House proceedings, for example, or at other times that have not been played would be played and then the replay of the House would follow as number five.

I wonder if he could confirm that that is the understanding. I do not think it is the intention to replay the special committee's proceedings immediately and not replay the House. Is that the understanding?

Mr. Cooper: Madam Speaker, I am sorry. I passed my copy of the motion in so I do not have it in front of me.

Clearly I want to make two comments. First of all, this is the House order that we had agreed to among House leaders the other day. As I recall it, it uses the words: "House of Commons proceedings live". In fact it does cover off the concerns of the hon. member. We agree with the assertion.

Madam Deputy Speaker: The House has heard the terms of the motion. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

Motion agreed to.

PETITIONSCANADA LABOUR CODE

Mr. Guy Saint-Julien (Abitibi): Madam Speaker, I have the honour to table a petition from residents of Amos, Authier, Berry, Saint-Félix, Saint-Mathieu, Guyenne and Manneville, in the Abitibi area, who respectfully submit to Parliament that the regulations on compensation for pregnant women fail to consider all criteria for working conditions under the Canada Labour Code. They ask that preventive withdrawal for pregnant women be made a desirable and necessary option for women at work.

Wherefor your petitioners humbly pray and call upon Parliament to give serious consideration to the deficiencies of the Canada Labour Code during the upcoming review process and recognize the need for including clauses on the preventive withdrawal of pregnant women, with pay.

QUESTIONS ON THE ORDER PAPER

Mr. Albert Cooper (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of State and Leader of the Government in the House of Commons): Madam Speaker, I ask that all questions be allowed to stand.

Madam Deputy Speaker: Are all questions allowed to stand?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Hon. Harvie Andre (Minister of State and Leader of the Government in the House of Commons): Madam Speaker, I rise on a point of order. As you have detected here, we are endeavouring to work out the day's agenda on the fly, so to speak, in the sense of having to deal with the question of the stoppage in grain movements at the port of Thunder Bay in an appropriate manner.
