

whom the applicant intends to study. The forms, when filled out, will give the necessary information with reference to the degrees held by the candidate, the courses of undergraduate study which he has followed, and the courses of graduate study which he desires to pursue. With the approval of the department a student may register for a half course at the beginning of the second term. All applications for courses of graduate study must be filed with the Dean of this Faculty on or before October 8th of each year. The regular courses of instruction begin on September 30th, 1929. As soon as the candidate's course has been approved by the Executive of the Faculty, he must register without delay at the office of the University Registrar. He will not be given credit for attendance until he does so. Candidates whose courses extend for more than one year must register at the commencement of each year of their course. If not registered at the beginning of the academic year, as provided above, the candidate shall not be eligible for the degree at the following Spring Convocation.

DEGREES

Graduate students may proceed to one or other of the following degrees:- Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Science in Agriculture, Master of Commerce, Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Literature, Doctor of Science, Doctor of Music.

RESIDENT GRADUATE STUDY

The instruction given in the Graduate Faculty includes lectures, seminars, colloquia, tutorials, and laboratory, and library research work. Each student, in addition to his thesis requirements, shall complete an adequate amount of course work instruction; the requirements differing with varying departments. The amount of this work will be designated by the major department concerned, with the approval of the Divisional Committee, and if necessary of the Faculty. The student may take any number of years he chooses more than the minimum in order to complete these requirements.

Members of the teaching staff of the University, who are also students in the Graduate Faculty, and who give more than three hours of lectures or six hours of conference work or twelve hours of supervisory work in the laboratory per week, or any student doing the equivalent amount of work inside or outside the University, may not obtain a Master's Degree in one year; and will require at least four years for the Degree of Ph.D.

No full-time student registered in any professional faculty of the University, may register for a Graduate Degree without the special leave of both Faculties (in full session).

FEES

Students taking the advanced summer course in French will be remitted $20.00 from the fee for M.A., for each summer course.

Graduate fee for M.Com., $60.00.
