

PAGE		PAGE
52	Iron Ores, superiority of the Woodstock ores,	169
187, 191	— at Springfield,	108
63	Iron, bog, origin of,	212
240	— distribution of,	214
87	— in Canada, where manufactured,	214
211	Iron, blue phoshate of,	218
108
151
	K
	Kennebecasis, (Little Snake River,) valley of,	70
	Kaolin for Pottery,	217
	L
xiii	Labrador Peninsula, description of the Boulders of the,	185
20	— glaciated region about Cariboo Lake,	186
22	Lake Basins, origin of,	199
23	Letite, Copper Mines of,	186
50	— section of Rocks near mine,	187
52	— mineral character of the strata,	138
178	— fractures and dislocations at,	138
128	— the Wheel Louisiana,	139
131	— the Main and Subordinate Lodes,	139, 140
210	Life during the Carboniferous Period,	82
x	— the Glacial Period,	200
50, 51	Lead ores, where the most productive Deposits occur,	116
98, 101	— argentiferous, remarks on,	116
99	— on Frye's Island,	141
145	Lime, quantity manufactured in New Brunswick,	240
132	— “ “ Maine,	240
229	Limestones, Tobique,	63, 64
	— analysis of,	66
52	— tufaceous, on the Tobique,	64
38	— of the Province, analysis of,	66
	— north of Norton Station,	81
230	— at Butternut Ridge,	81
28	— L'Etang, great purity of,	142
xiii	— fossiliferous on Frye's Island,	141
161	— importance of, for agricultural purposes,	237
161	— localities where found in the Province,	238
162	Logan, Sir W. E., his co-operation with respect to the Rocks and Fossils of
163	— New Brunswick,	x
164	— letter to the Author,	xv
165	— his opinion as to the occurrence of the Quebec group in
165	— New Brunswick,	xv
166	— his enumeration of the metals and minerals the group
166	— contains,	xv
166	— on the Upper St. John,	133
167	— discovers the relations of the “Quebec group,”	144
168	— opinions expressed in 1855 respecting his works,	252
168	Long Lake,	152