

The Store of To-day and To-morrow

HICKEY & PASCOE

97 Yonge Street

IT won't be long now before baseball conversation gives way to "coldest day in 20 years" and "froze my ears" and "skating at the park"—in other words it's time to think of your heavy overcoat.

READY with shawl collars belted backs, ulsters, ulsterettes, convertible coats, double and single breasted Chesterfields, Raglans, and a lot more.

A COAT for every man no matter what price he chooses to pay. $12, $15, $18, $20, $25, $30, $35, to $40.

ARNST WILL TRY FOR AUSTRALIAN TITLE

STONEY, Oct. 4.—Both Paddon and Arndt are now fairly at work in preparation for their race for the sculling championship of Australia on Nov. 1.

James Paddon is working twice a day at Evans Head, where his mentor, guide and coach, Mr. Harry Floyd, is now located, supervising matters. When the time arrives, he will have the assistance on the water of Charles Towns and another. The champion will have a strong bunch behind him—an experienced veteran at the head of affairs, the very highest grade of scullers to assist on the water, and a past master of the art to do the shore work, rubbing down, etc.

The challenger, who perfectly well realizes the magnitude of the opposing forces in all departments, is getting a float from veteran Peter Kemp's shed, at Abbotsford. He will have as his sculling mate no other than ex-Champion Alf Pelton, whilst the shore handling will be in capable hands. The Arndt camp will be "just all right."

There is this to be said about the defender of the title, viz.: His chief adviser, Mr. Floyd, has trained both men—Arndt for his race against Wm. Webb, and Paddon for his race against Pelton, and he should know to a tick what is wanted. It is a most interesting match, for many reasons, and when the race is over the winner will know there has been some sculling.

CHAMPS GET THEIR MONEY.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Twenty-six cheques were distributed here today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the National Baseball Commission, to the official and players of the Philadelphia American League Baseball Club as their share of the world's series money. The club received a cheque of $69,333.75, of which $10,000 had been put up as a forfeit to comply with the rules of the series. This was the net amount after 25 per cent. had been deducted from the backs. Indeed, it was a fact that President Johnson of the American League for distribution to the other seven American League Clubs. Each of the players eligible to compete in the series received $234.94.
