

THE SENATE OF CANADA

BILL A.

An Act to amend Part IV of The Canada Temperance Act by providing for the abolition of licenses to manufacture Intoxicating Liquor in provinces wherein the sale thereof is prohibited.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

RS., c. 152.
1919 (2nd
Sess.), c. 8.
1921, c. 20.
1922, c. 11.

1. Part IV of The Canada Temperance Act, chapter one hundred and fifty-two of The Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, as the said Part is enacted by chapter eight of the statutes of 1919 (Second Session) and chapter eleven of the statutes of 1922, is hereby amended by inserting therein, immediately after section 157, the following as section 157A:—

Provision for stopping issue
of licenses
under the Excise Act to manufacture
of intoxicating
liquor within
provinces
where importation
is prohibited.

“157A. Upon receipt by the Secretary of State of Canada of a duly certified copy of an order in council passed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council of any province in which the importation of intoxicating liquors into the province has been prohibited under this Part and in which that prohibition is still in force, requesting that no licenses be issued by the Minister of Customs and Excise for the manufacture within that province of any intoxicating liquor other than such as is to be used only for sacramental or medicinal purposes, or for manufacturing or commercial purposes other than as a beverage, or such other intoxicating liquor as under the laws of that province may be lawfully sold therein, the Governor in Council shall, by proclamation to be published in The Canada Gazette, declare that after the thirty-first day of March, 1924, no such license shall be issued, and accordingly after that date no such license shall be issued under the provisions of the Excise Act, chapter fifty-one of The Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, or under any other authority.”
