

CHAPTER 11.—He is soon comforted by the good news coming to him, that his pardon is purchased, and that he may go free	85
CHAPTER 12.—Being set at liberty he joins another army, and marches onward to another city, and becomes an heir to an inheritance, in the kingdom to which he is going.....	92
CHAPTER 13.—He calls to lodge in a house by the way where he meets with a beautiful feemale. He loves her and asks and receives her for a companion, when she takes with her her treasures, and starts out with him on his way, and coming to a place where two roads meet, he is instructed by his companion to take the right road, where he arrives safe in the city to which he was going..	95
CHAPTER 14.—He describes the city and its inhabitants.....	103
CHAPTER 15.—He gives an account of six great speeches delivered by six of the most powerful men in the kingdom	119
CHAPTER 16.—He gives an account of one great leader sent out to lead the people, who encourages them to be strong and of good courage.....	140
CHAPTER 17.—He is called out to fight against his former king and people. His experience in battle. *Being surrounded by his enemies who are too strong for him, he is compelled to flee for refuge in a tower for safety, and obtains victory over all his enemies	143
CHAPTER 18.—He gives an account of the food and clothing provided for the soldiers	147
CHAPTER 19.—He describes the scenes by the way as he is sent as a messenger to a distant town.....	148
CHAPTER 20.—He gives an account of several families who dwell there	163
CHAPTER 21.—His closing address	199