

Canada Life Assurance Company's Offices,

Hamilton, August 31st, 1882.

[TO OUR AGENTS.]

In reference to the circular herewith, and in taking official leave of the Company's Agents with whom I have been associated for some years past, I have to thank you all for your unfailing courtesy, many for your willing work, and not a few for conspicuous energy and success in advancing the prosperity of the old "Canada Life."

I shall still hope to learn from time to time good accounts from all our representatives.

To the few who have not quite fulfilled our expectations let me say, that between this and the close of the books in '83 there is still time to place yourselves right in this regard.

And now let us pull together for another good year, and see who will do the most business this time.

With my best wishes,

I am, yours faithfully,

J. W. MARLING.
