

shall be supplied during the whole period between sunset and sunrise with not less than six buckets filled with water, which shall be placed and shall stand during the whole of the said period at some convenient place upon the deck of such vessel, ready for instant use in case of fire.

Regulations for vessels carrying hay or straw.

Article 65.—There shall be no fire or light of any kind used between sunset and sunrise on board of any vessel loaded with hay or straw while within the said Harbour, and no steamer shall carry as freight, any hay or straw whatsoever, unless the same be pressed into bundles, which shall weigh not less than seven and a half pounds weight per cubic foot; and such bundles shall be kept completely and constantly covered with tarpaulin or oil-cloth.

No moveable buildings to be erected without authority.

Article 67.—No person shall erect or place any shed, shanty, boat-house, or moveable or other building of any kind or nature whatsoever, in or upon any place within the boundaries of the said Harbour, without the express permission in writing of the Harbour Master being first obtained; and if any such building be so erected or placed within such boundaries without such permission, it shall be lawful for the Harbour Master to remove such building at the expense of the person or persons who erected the same, who shall be liable for such expense in addition to the penalty imposed upon him or them for the infringement of this By-law; and to act in respect of the materials so removed, in the manner, and subject to all the conditions and provisions established by Article number thirty-three of the By-laws of the said Commissioners.

All permits to be exhibited on demand of any Harbour Officer.

Article 72.—In every case where any person is acting under a permission in writing from any officer of the said Harbour, or from any official authorized by the By-laws of the said Harbour to grant such permission; such person upon the first demand of the Wharfinger, or of the Harbour Master, or of any other official employed about the said Harbour by the said Commissioners, shall exhibit to the Wharfinger, Harbour Master or other official making such demand, the writing containing such permission.
