

- Liberal party, a split in the ranks, 137-8. See Reform.
- Liberal-Conservative party, the, 157-8.
- Lount, Samuel, his execution, 30.
- Lower Canada, racial feeling in, 22; the Rebellion, 3, 4, 25, 28-30; Durham's amnesty and ordinance, 14-19; Durham's Report, 21-3; political state before Union, 50; the Registry Act, 56; the opposition to Union, 57, 62, 68, 93; amnesty to all political offenders, 103; the Rebellion Losses Bill, 112-14, 116-17; Seigneurial Tenure, 140-1. See Quebec and Special Council.
- Macaulay, Lord, quoted, 20, 79, 83, 96.
- Macdonald, John A., his entry into politics, 93, 101; 'a British subject I will die,' 135; attorney-general, 157; his Liberal-Conservative administration, 158, 144.
- Macdonald, J. S., his studied insult, 156, 157.
- Mackenzie, W. L., incites anti-British feeling in the States, 12, 26; granted amnesty and returns to Canada, 118-19, 120, 142.
- MacNab, Sir Allan, leader of the Conservative Opposition, 86, 101; Speaker, 94; gives 'the lie with circumstance,' 119-20, 125; his tribute to Baldwin, 142; prime minister, 157.
- Marcy, W. L., and reciprocity with Canada, 151.
- Melbourne, Lord, and Durham, 17.
- Metcalf, Sir Charles, his early career, 82-3; his arrival at Kingston, 81; upholds the prerogative of the Crown, 84-6, 87; refuses to surrender right of appointment, 90-1; triumphs over the Reformers, 92-4; his peerage and death, 95-6.
- Montreal, 124, 137; as the capital, 86, 94; the riots in connection with the passing of the Indemnity Bill, 120-1; the burning of the Parliament Buildings, 124-7, 1; the attacks on Lord Elgin, 124-5, 128-9; the capital no more, 130; the Annexation Association, 134-5.
- Morin, A. N., Speaker of the Assembly, 102; his administration, 143.
- Municipal system of Canada, the, 55-6, 64; the Municipal Corporations Act, 107-9; municipalities and railways, 145.
- Murdoch, T. W. C., secretary to Sydenham, 37.
- Neilson, John, his policy of obstruction, 62, 68.
- Nelson, Robert, proclaims a Canadian republic, 29.
- Nelson, Wolfred, a Rebellion leader, 15, 93; his claim for indemnity, 119.
- New Brunswick, Sydenham's visit to, 52.
- Nova Scotia, the struggle for responsible government in, 51; the rise of the colleges,