News of Waterfront

The Argyle will not make a trip from Toronto this morning as she is to carry a church excursion from Port Dalhousie to Grimsby.

The traffic on the lake yesterday was very brisk for the day following a holiday.

Yesterday afternoon a gentleman's hat was lifted by the wind from his head and tossed into the bay. Iola P. McConnell of the Turbinia line, volunteered to recover the headgear and accordingly descended from the wharf into the punt "Box Car Mary" and taking a pole with him, soon recovered the hood. On reaching the shore he was handed a bran new fifty cent piece and at the same time the old gentleman said the hat only cost 30 cents in the first place, but that such acts of kindness should be rewarded. "That's all right, I only got my feet wet," said McConnell.
