By request he unveiled at Dingwall, Ross-shire, the very handsome tablet of fine blue granite, which was provided largely thru the contributions of the Sons of Scotland of Ontario—a sey Hall under the auspices of the Garceremony which was generously noticed, not only by the newspapers of Scotland, but by The Morning Post, Standard, and Telegram, of London.

Sey Hall under the auspices of the Garrison Sergeants' Association.

The proceeds of the evening will be devoted to the South African memorial.
