R. SYMES,

TREASURER.

January, 1841.

This account shews that the usual legislative allowance was granted by the Special Council, at the recommendation of His Excellency the Governor General. It has enabled the Society to continue the additions to the Library hitherto in progress, to add to the Natural History Cabinet, and to pay off the debt to Messrs. Armour & Ramsay mentioned in the Report of last year. The Society's warmest thanks are due to His Excellency the Governor General for this grant, and for a similar one for the ensuing year, which has been recommended by His Lordship to the Special Council without waiting for the usual petition on our part.

The Librarian has at length completed a catalogue of the books under his charge; which is ready to be printed, as soon as funds can be spared for that purpose. The books are divided into different classes, according to the subjects of which they treat. The total number of volumes, now on the shelves, amounts to 984. The arrangement was a work that demanded considerable time and attention; and too much praise cannot be given to Mr. Sewell, for the zeal which he evinced in completing it. Indeed, when we consider, that, from the want of men of leisure
