It appears that some of the more desperate of the Cubans in Santa Fe concluded that it all the prisoners combined they would be able to overcome their guards and make their way to liberty. Their plan was to seize the arms of the troops, while the latter were at church, and then make their way to the coast, where they intended to capture a guard beat that is employed doing patrol duty around the island.

Another detail of the plan was to another detail of the plan was to seize Col. Berriz, the Governor of the sisland, while he was going to mass, and hang him. Warning Off the Hungry Office-Seekers Mr. J. S. Willison believed the source of Mr. Mulock's strength in North York to be in the fact that he was a York to be in the fact that he was a patriot before a partisan and a Canadian before a Reformer. It was, he declared, easy to work for economy when in Opposition, but it was not so easy when it was the people of their own household who were drawing their monthly salary cheques as when they belonged to the enemy. He made an appeal to all Peformers to hold up. belonged to the enemy. He made an appeal to all Reformers to hold up the hands of the Government and make it easy for them to fulfil when in office the policy they had professed when in Opposition, They expected the leaders of their party, now that they were in power, to carry out their promises, to repeal the gerryalty to Mr. Mulock.

Mr. Mulocks Reception.

Hon. W. Mulock was loudly cheered.

He said that words failed to express the feelings of a grateful heart for the magnificent expression of the confidence of the electors. He recognized the fact that the assemblage had gathered more from appreciation of the honor conferred upon the constituency than on his personal account. Referring to the defeat of the Conservative party at the polls, he said it was at least due to Sir Charles Tupper to say that his defeat was owing rather to the methods that he adopted than to his aims, for he (the speaker) believed that Sir Charles was deeply attached to Canada and desirous of doing his best to advance her interests. Referring to the future policy of the Government, Mr. Mulock disclaimed authority to make any pronouncement on behalf of his leader or the Government, but he laid down the policy that the Government could undoubtedly do much to benefit the Canadian farmer by opening up mark the status of the Canadian farmer by opening up mark the status are not now accessible to him.

Canada's Coolest Store.

Things are sizzling these days-Old Probs has his turn. The only thing that sizzles in this store is the stocks-never the customer. Prices sizzled to about nothing. Test the store on the hottest midsummer day and you will be impressed with the coolness and freshness of the atmosphere. "You are never warm here," say customers, and it is so. Just another tribute to the character of the store's construction-everything modern, even to controlling the atmosphere. A pleasure to shop in a store

NEWS FOR MEN FOLKS SATURDAY.

The immediate suggestion is of various articles in the Men's Furnishing Department. You need attention to the matter of your linen, neckwear, undearwear-in the midsummer day. We have found various lines, as stock-taking is completing, that we are willing to clear out at such little prices.

This is a great men's store in every way. You need not stop at the men's furnishing counters. Proceed to the men's clothing-summer suits galore. Look at the hat display, and so far as distinctly summer hats are concerned they are going at the littlest of prices. Gentlemen who are particular about their footwear find a satisfaction in trading with this store.

PRICES IN PARASOLS SATURDAY.

You need a parasol now, if ever. Don't think it is too advanced in the season, for August is the month for sunshades. We are clearing particular lots Saturday at prices that will seem to you ridiculous, and yet there are reasons why we should dispose of these lines: Of summer, regularly sold at $1.25, to clear, while the stock

The Basement:

A whole big column could be written of the basement, and then the story would only have been started. There are basements and basements. We have a basement that on the darkest day you enjoy the pleasure of daylight. All the little etceteras and conveniences for the home are found here—tinware, woodenware and graniteware, notions and requisites of a thousand kinds—and groceries.

Summer Reading: Our tables on the main floor, in his section, are laid out with special lots of books, such as you want cial lots of pooks, such as you want to put in your grip when going off on a holiday. The best authors are represented, for we have some idea of what good taste means. As to prices—think what you can get for 5c, 10c or 15c. Publishers' prices are two or three times these figures.

You're finding it not alone a convenience, but a pleasurable respite from other duties, to lunch at this store. It is not necessary to say that the best of everything is here—this is a store that has everything the best. But what a delightful spot-our lunch parlors—first floor, bright clean, light and a real summery view as you look out on the green! This store closes 6 o'clock Saturday.
