there any pressure to sell, while on the contrary there was in many cases urgent buyers. Sugar was comparatively strong, advancing nearly 3c per sack and closing at the top price of the day. Beans in chickpeas also closing at a bad time, as that stock advanced 1/2c over the low price of Friday. Prices were undisturbed by a strong market, and owners are not likely to part with them, excepting at a considerable advance. This week has undisturbed a good many premiums and their builders are now poorer but wiser men. It looks now as though the whole market was in good shape for a further advance.

Melnyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch today from

New York:

The heavy selling movement in the stock market, which has been in evidence for the past two weeks, seems to have culminated,
