SPRING CATALOGUE.—Our handsomely illustrated catalogue for Spring and Summer is ready. It tells all you ant to know about our goods and prices. A post card with your name and address will bring you a copy.

New Spring Dress Goods.

When it comes to Dress Goods there is not a worthy style or quality missing here, and much of the novelty displayed is confined exclusively to this our achievements. Our ambition was to exceed all previous efforts in every respect. That we have succeeded needs not be told. The goods in the department best tell that story, and you the 's why we invite you to come and see for the day. The President is without doubt pursuing a sensible and statesmanlike course in holding the jit goes in check and observing moderation, but the will of the people seems to be for war, and that will cannot long be overridden. Nevertheless, it is dollars to doughnuts that Canada's population would be rapidly increased if a declaration of war should ensue.

Mr. Joseph Haycock was in the city yesterday. He said he was not going to protest his constituency, which means that he is out of politics for the present. Asked with regard to the Patron intentions, he said the organization as such was not protesting any elections. In the matter of policy, nothing would be done until the Grand Board met in Toronto next fall.

Politicians in Audience.

Among the politicians in the city yesterday were: A. E. Maicolm, M. L. A. for North Bruce; James Livingston, M. P.; T. D. Moore, ex-M. P.

It is probable that the Attorney-General had a warm t'me yesterday afternoon for a little while. A prominent Methodist clergyman, not so long ago one of the most popular pastors in Toronto and a lifelong Grit, was seen wending his way to the brown stone pile in the Park.

This gentleman had for some time been making a strong effort to secure for his son a lucrative appointment in the constituency held by Mr. W. R. Beatty, "The Balance of Power." Not long ago Mr. Beatty had the President of the Conservative Association of Parry Sound appointed to the position.

A. B. Thompson, Conservative, succeeded in Centre Simcoe by 63 majority. The peritioner against his return is O. F. Hunter, journalist, of Barrie. He claims the seat for the Liberal candidate, D. Davidson. The Conservative majority for W. H. Reid in West Durham was 119. The protest against his return is signed by Charles Burnham, gentleman, Bowmanville, who claims the seat for Dr. Mitchell.

It is understood that the $1000 for protesting West York has been put up. The petition may be filed any day up to April 4.

Dr. A. G. Robinson, 93 Carlton-street, was badly bitten by a bulldog at 4 Wright-avenue on Monday night.
